

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy of EYP, Inc. not to discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of his or her race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, or because he or she is a disabled veteran, Armed Forces service medal veteran, recently separated veteran, or active duty wartime or campaign badge veteran (collectively, "protected veterans"), or any other characteristics protected under applicable law. It is also the policy of EYP to take affirmative action to employ and to advance in employment all persons regardless of their status as individuals with disabilities or protected veterans, and to base all employment decisions only on valid job requirements. This policy shall apply to all employment actions, including but not limited to recruitment, hiring, upgrading, promotion, transfer, demotion, layoff, recall, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation and selection for training, including apprenticeship, at all levels of employment.

Employees and applicants shall not be subjected to harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion or discrimination because they have engaged in or may engage in any of the following activities: (1) Filing a complaint; (2) Assisting or participating in an investigation, compliance evaluation, hearing, or any other activity related to the administration of Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (Section 503) or any other Federal, State or local law requiring equal opportunity for individuals with disabilities; (3) Opposing any act or practice made unlawful by Section 503 or its implementing regulations in this part, or any other Federal, State or local law requiring equal opportunity for disabled persons; or (4) Exercising any other right protected by section 503 or its implementing regulations in this part. Further, EYP will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant.

As Chief Executive Officer of EYP, I am committed to the principles of Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity. In order to ensure dissemination and implementation of equal employment opportunity and affirmative action throughout all levels of the EYP, I have selected Mary Cregut as the Chief Human Resources Officer for EYP. One of the Chief Human Resource Officer's duties will be to establish and maintain an internal audit and reporting system to allow for effective measurement of EYP's programs.

In furtherance of EYP's policy regarding Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity, EYP has developed a written Affirmative Action Program which sets forth the policies, practices and procedures that EYP is committed to in order to ensure that its policy of nondiscrimination and affirmative action for qualified individuals with disabilities and qualified protected veterans is accomplished. This Affirmative Action Program is available for inspection by any employee or applicant for employment upon request between normal business hours at the Human Resources department. Any questions should be directed to me, your supervisor, or Mary Cregut, Chief Human Resources Officer.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'S. Butler', written over a horizontal line.

Scott Butler, PE, LEED AP
Chief Executive Officer
EYP

January 1, 2019

Reaffirmation of EEO Policy

The employees of EYP are our most important asset. Our organization's continued success and development depends on the future and effective use of all of our skills and talents to their fullest extent. EYP has an obligation to hire and develop the best people we can find based on job-related qualifications and irrespective of any characteristics protected under applicable law.

EYP is committed to the principles of Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action because it is morally right and legally required. It is the obligation of each officer, manager, and supervisor to ensure all employment activities are conducted in an equal and equitable fashion, without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions), sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, transgender status, age, national origin, marital status, citizenship, physical and mental disability, criminal record, genetic information, predisposition or carrier status, status with respect to receiving public assistance, domestic violence victim status, a disabled, special, recently separated, active duty wartime, campaign badge, Armed Forces service medal veteran, or any other characteristics protected under applicable law.

Such employment activities include, but are not limited to: recruitment, advertising, selection, hiring, training, promotion, upgrade, demotion, transfer, layoff, discharge, return from layoff, leaves of absence, performance evaluation, rate of pay, other compensation and fringe benefits and selection for training, including apprenticeship, at all levels of employment.

Further, EYP will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant.

We will be measuring ourselves against specific objectives which will continue to move our organization toward full and equal participation of all employees in the numerous opportunities available here. Periodic analysis will ensure our progress towards these goals.

Scott Butler, PE, LEED AP
Chief Executive Officer
EYP

January 1, 2019

