

TITLE Tradewell Fellowship

CATEGORY Architecture

DESCRIPTION EYP is currently seeking applicants for our Tradewell Fellowship beginning in June 2020. This is a one-year program specializing in healthcare planning and design with EYP in one of our participating healthcare offices. The Fellow is provided the opportunity to work with senior planners and designers on a variety of projects, ranging from initial master planning efforts to design, while gaining exclusive exposure to clients and consultants. Fellows also benefit from the unique experience and career guidance that comes from working with leaders in the healthcare industry and have access to in-house educational presentations, as well as to the network of past Tradewell Fellows. The ideal fellowship candidate is a dedicated professional who wants to be a lifelong learner and mentor to others in the healthcare architecture industry. To develop an expertise in an area of his or her interest, the Fellow will select a topic related to the design of healing spaces and create a body of work suitable for presentation and/or publication during their fellowship year. The Tradewell Fellowship has produced many talented healthcare planners and designers in the past years, and this tradition is an important part of EYP's culture. Multiple Tradewell Fellowships may be awarded based on merit, in separate participating healthcare office locations.
